Citizen Comment Period:

Lee Bennett expressed thanks to the council for allowing him a tour of the Peck Water Treatment Plant (given by Anthony Gravenmier) and advised that he has found parts and information regarding the pumps used. He reported that he has given all of that relevant information to Justin Beard.

Deanna Walker spoke to address “untrue statements” in a certified letter that she received from the City of Peck. The letter was regarding inflammatory messages sent by her to City Maintenance Worker Leroy Kuykendall concerning her objections to city construction vehicles left on her property. Deanna Walker objects to the claim that she threatened or harassed Leroy Kuykendall and vigorously requested that all documentation to that effect be scrubbed from public city records. She accused the city – particularly Mayor Carson – of defamation. Leroy noted that Deanna’s son came to his house to confront him. Mayor Carson noted that nothing was public until Deanna Walker came to this city council meeting and made it public. The Mayor also said that she would take Deanna’s comments to the city attorney and go from there. Deanna was dissatisfied and addressed the rest of the council when she said that she didn’t think that the Mayor understood her concern. Council Member Tammy Hassell asked if Deanna would like the city attorney's comments in writing. Deanna was satisfied by this.

Eugene Donnelly (by phone) stated that the numbers in the computer are quite plain; the water bill in Spokane only increased by $20.01 in the last 20 years, bringing the combined bill (water and power) to approximately $163. He argued that the water bill in Peck amounts to nearly $300. Mayor Carson explained that the City of Peck has nothing to do with power bills in Peck and asked Gene to bring whatever information he has to the City Hall for discussion when it's convenient for him. Anthony Gravenmier asked to be at that meeting to help explain why things are the way they are with city water. Gene simply said that all we need to do is look at the numbers in the computer.

Joe Gish reported on a budget exercise and that there will be a 0% property tax increase for Nez Perce County. He also mentioned that in matters of solid waste, Nez Perce County will begin bypassing the Lewiston transfer station and going straight to Asotin, Washington. This will save $47 per ton of solid waste.

Reviewing possible options for speed control on Main Street

Mayor Carson stated that price points for removable speed bumps range from $50 to $250 per unit. Council Members Gina Gravenmier, Tammy Hassell, and Milt Nodacker want more information about pricing. Joe Gish offered to find information about county surplus speed bumps.

Discussion of developing May Street out to Elwood Street

Mayor Carson explained that citizens have suggested development of May Street to provide emergency vehicle access to residents. Anthony Gravenmier reported that Pete Smith has agreed that development of the street would be beneficial to Big Canyon Fire District. Leroy Kuykendall reported on obstacles to be overcome and a rough task list including, but not limited to:

- Putting stop signs on May Street, Pine Street, and Marion Street
- The fire hazard that exists past the Wheeler property
- The use of an excavator for at least one week

Mayor Carson inquired about culverts for that area and Leroy answered that a culvert already exists there. Justin Beard asked if Nez Perce County Sheriffs can be available to cite offenders who run the stop signs if they are installed. Mayor Carson stated that she has already received assurances from Nez Perce County that offenders would indeed be nabbed. Amanda Wheeler asked if a survey of property lines would precede any broken ground and Leroy stated that a ditch would need to be dug on the Palmers' side of the road.

Dealing with Hostile Citizens on City Hall Premises (ACTION AND INFORMATION)

Mayor Carson stated emphatically that she has absolutely zero tolerance for her staff feeling harassed, threatened or afraid because of the behavior of unruly citizens. She said also that if such a situation arises, city personnel should call Nez Perce County and have the offenders trespassed. Mayor Carson read Ordinance No. 3 which details penalties for disorderly and unruly conduct. She suggested adding a resolution to Ordinance No. 3 to the agenda for the August Work Session. Joe Gish offered to speak with judges that he knows to get feedback from them. Mayor Carson explained that it should be protocol to call 911 while offenders are behaving wildly on city property.
